In the inaugural round following The Links at Spanish Bay's opening ceremony in 1987, Tom Watson shot a 67 - which still stands as the official course record. Watson came off the course declaring, "It's so much like Scotland, you can almost hear the bagpipes playing." A tradition was born, and today you can hear the bagpipes play each evening as a piper closes the course shortly before sunset.

The Links at Spanish Bay

Enjoy one round of golf including golf cart rental for two at The Links at Spanish Bay.

Meandering among the sweeping sand dunes, the Links at Spanish Bay unveils some of the most breathtaking seaside views in Pebble Beach. The rolling fairways gently flow through and around the gorgeous dunescape, briefly weaving between towering Monterey Pines, before returning to the white sand of Spanish Bay Beach for a thrilling finish along the coast.

The spectacular setting offers panoramic ocean views of some of 17-Mile Drive's most scenic stretches, showing off whitecaps bouncing on the power Pacific and a brilliant sunset. Robert Trent Jones, Jr., Tom Watson and Sandy Tatum teamed up to artfully craft a distinctly Scottish look for this golf course, blending green and golden hues against a stunning beachside backdrop to produce a memorable experience unlike any other in Pebble Beach.
